

The Daily Gazetteer.

FRIDAY, JULY 28. 1738.

17965.

Belgrade, July 1. O. S.

AMONG other Particulars that passed at the Siege of Orsova, they tell us, that when the Enemy had made a great Breach in the Place, the Baron de Cornberg who commanded there, did not fire so much as one Cannon for 3 Days; which made the Turks believe that his Army began to fail; but they were undeceived, when, after the Storming of that Place, they found that out of 3000 Men that made the Breach, there came but a small Number back, having been killed on the Spot by the Arch-bishop the Baron de Cornberg had caused to be fired on both Sides of the Breach, and which was fully seconded by the Small Arms of the Turkish Disasters, added to the Advice that was given at the same time of the Defeat of the Cornia, occasion'd such a Consternation in the Turks, that they thought of nothing but to retire in the best manner they could.

July 8. They write from the Army, that Turkish Garrison evacuated Meadia, and if there was not one Count de Thier Imperial Army, and as there happen'd to him who is called the Count Lewis de Thier, Turk made him a Compliment, and told he was taken Prisoner in the last War; that he'd a long time as a Heyduke with his received many Favours from him, and way of Acknowledgment, he desired the most of the most valuable and dearest Present make him, viz. his Musquer, which was and damask'd, and he hoped that in case he was taken Prisoner, he should find a generous and soon obtain his Liberty. The Count have pay'd for the Musker, but the Man take any thing for it, and desired him to his Sake.

July 16. According to some Advices from the Provisions which the Turks left in Orsova, were found to have been some Infidels to whom they were given for having died on the Spot. 'Tis said the Mo have determined him to take this Step, are attending the said Administration, and the in it occasions betwixt him and his Brother Charles Leopold.

July 10. M. Haufs, Lieutenant Col. Regiment of Wrangel, and Brother to the of State, died here on the 5th, having been since April last, and his Corpse was carried to be interred there with his Ancestors. Several Officers that are in Town, have had consultations about a Plan sent to them by the reducing two Regiments into one, and for a Squadron of Grenadiers. The Harvest is here, and promises a great Abundance of Corn; is like to be very scarce in these Parts, the being quite spoil'd by the Rains and In- which are now indeed abated.

July 1. A Congregation of several Cardinals held, for accommodating the Dispute be- Cardinal Alberoni, the Legat of Ravenna, and the Archbishop of that See, the Cardinal having imprisoned the Chancellor of that Diocese, and the Archbishop having excommunicated the Officers by whom he was arrested. The Son of the Marquis Muti being disorder'd in his Senses, went out into the Streets last Tuesday, with a Sword under his Cloak, with which he wounded every Body that came in his Way, till a Waterman, who was condemn'd to the Gallies, threw him upon the Ground, by flinging his Cloak over his Head, and with the Help of some other Persons, carried him home. The Waterman was committed to Prison by the Pope's Serjeants; but the Governor of this City going last Wednesday to the Pope's usual Levee, and representing to him the Service which the Waterman had done, by preventing the Madman from doing much more Mischief, his Holiness ordered him to be set at Liberty.

Venice, July 8. The Edict for prohibiting all Commerce with Wallachia, Transylvania and Servia, is renewed on account of the Contagion in those Countries; and for the same Reason no Animals or Goods are to be imported from the Kingdom of Hungary, and the neighbouring Provinces of Austria, Sclavonia, Croatia, Carniola, Stiria and Carinthia; and also from Tirol, Trieste, Fiume, &c. without performing Quarantine at the Places prescribed by such Edict.

The last Letters from the Island of Corsica say, that the 3000 Malecontents, who had again taken Arms, are separated, without having committed any Act of Hostility, and that they were disposed to send the Hostages demanded by the Court of France to Toulon; but that as to the Demand for delivering up their Fire Arms, they desire Time to consider of it. 'Tis reported, that Baron Theodore is gone on board one of Admiral Haddock's Men of War, and that he was to return to Corsica with Ammunition, &c.

Berlin, July 13. In order to oblige the Merchants of this City, the King has ordered an Exchange to be built for them, in the Place where the Grotto was, just by that where they mount the Guard.

Amsterdam, July 20. They write from Loo, that the King of Prussia, and the Prince Royal, were expected there Yesterday, or this Day; and that 'twas believed they would stay there two or three Days. The Emperor's Ambassador, the Count d'Uhlsefeldt, has communicated to the States the Advice he has received of the Surrender of Meadia, and of the raising the Siege of Orsova by the Infidels; and has been thereupon congratulated by the President of the Assembly of the States General.

Paris, July 22. The Chauvelin and the Heron, two of our India Companies Ships, are arrived from Ponticherry at Port l'Orient, on the 10th ult. with a very considerable Cargo, and their other Ships from Ponticherry, Mahe, Bengal, and the Isle of Bourbon, are expected every Day. The Emperor's Ambassador, the Prince de Lichtenstein, had a Horse try'd lately in the Forest of Compiègne, in Presence of the King, and the Princes, and Princesses of the Blood, which runs one third Part of a League in a Minute. The King has laid out 60,000 Livres in the antique Medals of the Kings of Egypt, Syria, Macedon, and Armenia, and several fine antique Tombs, the Collection of the late Marshal d'Esrees. According to the Account we have received from M. de Mirepoix, our Ambassador at the Court of Vienna, the Turks lost 3000 Men before Orsova, besides their wounded Men whom they could not carry off, and therefore killed; and 'tis said the Bashaw who commanded them was taken Prisoner. They write from all Parts of the Country, that there has not been so plentiful a Harvest for a long Time, nor a Prospect of a finer Vintage. King Stanislaus of Poland, passed incog. over the Ramparts of this City on the 13th, for Versailles, to pass a few Days with the Queen his Daughter, while the King is at Compiègne. The Cardinal de Fleury, who had a Fall the same Day, as he was with the King, by which he hurt his Head, and was so stunned withal that he did not recover himself till he slept 8 Hours in Bed, has found no ill Effect from that Accident.

SCOTLAND.

Thurso in Caithness, July 11. We learn from Bowar, in the Neighbourhood of this Place, that on the 6th current died the Rev. Mr. Hugh Corrie, Minister of the Gospel at Bowar, of an Apopleckick Illness, being 63 Years of Age, after 37 Years Labour in the Work of the Ministry. As his Life, for remarkable Piety, ministerial Faithfulness and Abilities, justly recommended Religion, and adorned the Character which he bore; so the singular and submissive Manner in which he resign'd his last Breath, testify'd to all present how much he was reconciled to the Divine Dispensation, which plainly appeared to be his earnest Wish and hearty Desire. The great Success of his Labours, and many Seals of his Ministry, not a few are living and mourning Witnesses of.

We hear that since the taking of Meadia by the Germans, and the raising of the Siege of Orsova by the Turks, who thereupon abandoned their Camp before that Place, the Turks retook Possession of the said Camp; but that afterwards the Imperialists, under Command of Count Philippi, attacked a great Body of the Turks, and intirely routed them. 'Tis said these Advices have been brought by Expresses to the Danish and other Envoys; but we must wait for the next Dutch Mail to confirm them.

Of this Lady it should not, in these Times, be forgot to say, that she received her Education from careful and religious Parents, and in Consequence of that, her whole Life was an Exercise of every thing that concerned her Duty and Religion: On this account she was deservedly esteemed Abroad by all that knew her, and by her exemplary Piety and Prudence at Home, most affectionately honoured and beloved by her Children and Family.

MINERAL WATERS.
A Seasonable Caution to all PYRMONT and SPAW Water-Drinkers.

There are frequently Imported Quantities of false Waters, sold by divers Druggists and others, which may be distinguished by their having no Marks on the Bottles, or Seal on the Flasks: Whereas no Bottles are suffer'd to be filled at the Pyrmont Spring, without having Impressed on the Bottles, either in Whole or in Part (as in the Margin) the Arms of the Prince of Waldeck, in whose Country the said Spring is situated.
SO likewise the true SPA WATERS have the adjoining Impression (being the Arms of the Prince of LIECHTENBERG, in whose Country the Spaw Fountains are situated) either impressed in Glass on the Neck of the Flask, or sealed with the same in Wax on the Cap of Leather, or both.
Such Pyrmont or Spaw Waters as are not thus distinguish'd, are assuredly Spurious; and there are no small Quantities of such imported — which is the Reason of giving this Caution.
